

Excellence in Medical Education Awards 2016

Category: Teaching

Joint Winner: Dr Jonathan Dowling (Emergency)

For outstanding contributions in the development of the emergency junior doctor training program, in particular the high quality teaching and protected training time.

Joint Winner: Dr Hashrul Rashid (Cardiology)

For outstanding contributions in the inaugural MonashHEART Murmurs Day and creation of a large database of patients for Physician Clinical Exams.

Highly commended :

Dr Kylie Horne (Infectious Diseases) in conjunction with the Antimicrobial Stewardship Service

Dr Shana Norhadi (General Surgery)

Dr Alice Robinson (Obstetrics and Gynaecology)

Mr Stephen Tham (Orthopaedic Surgery)

Excellence in Medical Education Awards 2016

Category: Supervision

Joint Winner: Dr David Jacka (Addiction Medicine)

For outstanding contributions in the development of unit orientation, tutorials and continuous learning opportunities for junior doctors.

Joint Winner: Dr Michael Keane (Anaesthetics)

For outstanding support of junior doctors and role modelling of patient centred care.

Lifetime Service for Supervision Award:

Mr Jacob Goldstein (Cardiothoracic Surgery)

Excellence in Medical Education Awards 2016

Category: Educational Research

Winner: Associate Professor Udaya Seneviratne (Neuroscience)

For research in improving junior doctor's diagnostic accuracy of seizures using a video teaching education program.

Highly commended :

Dr Damian Castanelli (Anaesthetics)

Dr Damir Ljuhar (Paediatric Surgery)